

THE CATHOLIC BIBLICAL ASSOCIATION OF GREAT BRITAIN

JONAH: PROPHET FOR TODAY

Fr Adrian Graffy
(member of the Pontifical Biblical Commission)

Saturday 9 July, 11:00-12:30 BST

In this scripture talk, hosted by the Catholic Biblical Association of Great Britain, Fr Adrian Graffy will offer a detailed exploration of the book of Jonah, and the prophet's encounters with the sailors, with the Ninevites, and with God.

In Person: You may book a place (free of charge) on eventbrite to attend the talk in person at the Catholic Church of Christ the Eternal High Priest, Gidea Park, 410 Brentwood Road, Romford, RM2 6DH.

Live Stream: Alternatively you may watch the event free on live-stream. The web-link will be available on the day on the WhatGoodNews website:

<https://www.whatgoodnews.org/>

The Chair of the CBA-GB, Dr Sean Ryan, will introduce the event.

Book a free ticket to attend in person on eventbrite:

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/jonah-prophet-for-today-tickets-369438499497>